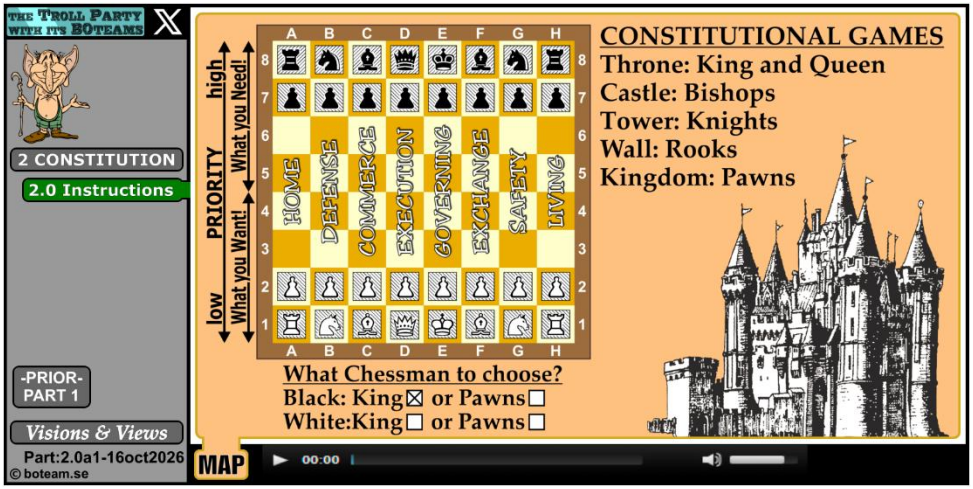
Visions & Views: The Troll Party – Constitution – Part 2.0

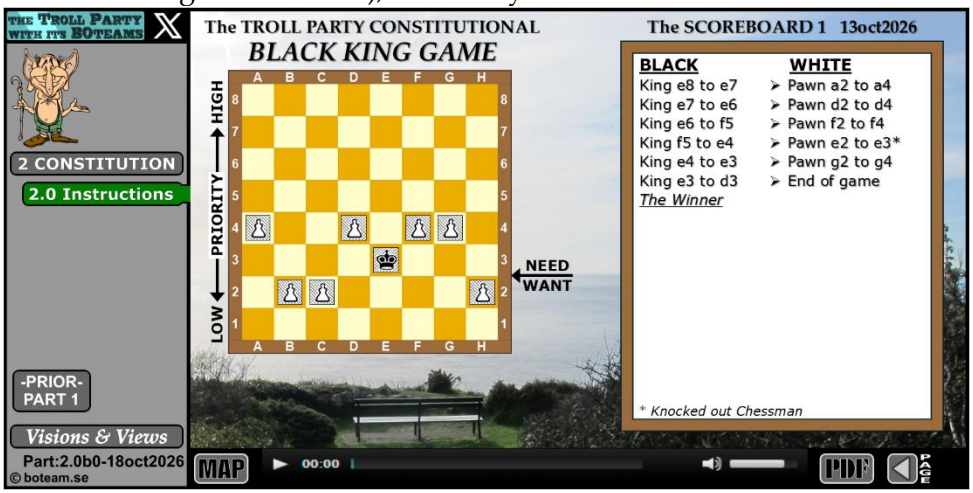
Back in reality there's always a lot to do and the stress factor can sometimes be quite high, which very much is the opposite in Doo's time. I guess stress showed up with humankind, whereas before being busy, felt inspiring. So, taking on this task, setting up these five chess games, I can feel a bit of stress, but even so an inspiring stress I would say.

Right! I have 'sort of' managed to 'MAP' the basics of these following games, for both you and me, to keep in mind of, … and you will find that Map by clicking the 'Map Button' below. Then I need to set these games up, one by one, sort of explaining the rules and what's at stake in each one of them, and not least, what the winning trophy 'IS', and what it in a Chess Game like this looks like.



Visions & Views: The Troll Party – Constitution – Part 2.0

So, I have five games to setup, but first I need to recap my first Constitutional game, that about choosing chessman, black King or Pawns, or, white King or Pawns, … which at the same time was about; black, what was needed, and white, what was wanted. Which was about this 'Troll Party' and which chessman to use. So I represented the Troll Party and choose the black King to play with (representing the 'Throne' and what the King needed to rule). And as a result of that my choice, my opponent had to be the white Pawns (representing the 'Kingdom' and what the 'Kingdom' wanted), sort of my will that is.



Okay! Here on page 'B' you find how this first 'Troll Chess Game' ended, (which I earlier told about on page 2 'D') and a scoreboard showing how that result came to be. And so, this is the 'Initial' result of the Throne King 'GOVERNING', having gained an extra chess row '3' to rule over (and all the previous row's 4 to 8 too, of course), … meaning: What the King 'Need' has priority over what the Pawns 'Want'.

But also, the three white Pawns on squares 'B' 2, 'C' 2, and 'H' 2, as they belonged to the losing 'White' team, and thus, their 'Want' squares and up turned to the black Kings 'Need' side too.

So! This first game settled the Throne one side, the 'King' position. The next following game will settle the Throne the other side, the 'Queen' position.

Visions & Views: The Troll Party – Constitution – Part 2.0

The gain so far, regarding this Troll Party's 'Constitution', is that the King 'alone' will have five chessboard rows, 'E' 3 to 'E' 8, to govern and rule over, plus the three squares 'B' 2, 'C' 2, and 'H' 2, … 'Which means' (as the black King in 'Reality' represents Nature), that Nature rules, and that it's the 'NATURE NEEDS' this Troll Party will prior according to the priority scale to the left where 8 is the highest.

That is what these Constitutional games are all about you see, … to 'Present' us humankinds a 'Progressive Reality Program' which people can vote on (if allowed to), or not, that is.

So! Those five chessboard squares 'E' 3 to 'E' 8, in a next step (Part 3) 'Presentation', will be filled with what Nature in 'MY' humankind reality 'Needs', which is the same the Troll Party 'King' aim to Govern and 'LEGISLATE' about, that is. 'And then next off', which is about the Troll Party 'Queen' and her aim to 'Execute' those 'Kings Legislations', to both check and to quality secure them to be followed. And if not, I'm not too sure of yet.

'AND!' Regarding what those 'Nature Needs' are: Doo and Bo will assist me telling about when I'm done with these remaining games to sort of testing myself where this party of mine and I stand in this my sort of 'REALITY' world, (like am I left or right, liberal or conservative, or what?).

Now! … Those remaining Constitutional Games will of course follow the same rules and pattern:

The 'Castle' game: The two Bishops…

The 'Tower' game: The two Knights…

The 'Wall' game: The two Rooks…

And then the last game, 'Kingdom': Which is about the Pawns, which I'm not too sure of. I whatever can feel that there's something Doo left out for me to discover on my own when getting there. Whatever it is, I need to do my best to get to that game and not to disappoint Doo or Bo, which would be devastating.

So for now, I will be in touch tomorrow.
